

NCADD President Discusses Alcohol Awareness Month During Al-Anon Podcast

NCADD President and CEO Robert J. Lindsey was recently interviewed for an Al-Anon Podcast.

The program, called "First Steps to Al-Anon Recovery" from Al-Anon Family Groups, discusses a professional's concern for families whose parents or young people have a drinking problem.

To listen to the podcast, please click here.

For families affected by the disease of addiction, there is Hope, There is Help, There is Healing. Click on this link to learn more about what help is available in your community, and nationwide.