

Become a Volunteer

NCADD and many of its NCADD Affiliates rely on volunteers to help further our mission. Whether it is to join a committee, assist with logistical support for local events, participate in fundraisers, Recovery Month celebrations, prepare mailings, or answer telephones, your help can make a profound difference. Volunteering can also provide a networking opportunity for you. Please contact NCADD or your local Affiliate today to see what volunteer opportunities may exist.