The National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence (NCADD) was proud to present the New York Premier Screening of THE ANONYMOUS PEOPLE

NCADD hosted the New York City Premier of the new documentary film, The ANONYMOUS PEOPLE, about the 23.5 million Americans living in long-term recovery and the emerging public recovery movement.

The event took place on Tuesday, September 17, 2013 at 6:30 PM at Skirball Center for the Performing Arts of New York University located at 566 LaGuardia Place (Between 3rd Street & Washington Square South) in New York City.

THE ANONYMOUS PEOPLE is a feature documentary film about the 23.5 million Americans living in long-term recovery from alcohol and other drug addiction. Deeply entrenched social stigma and mass participation in widely successful anonymous 12-step groups have kept recovery voices silent and faces hidden for decades.

There was a very special Q&A with filmmaker Greg Williams, actress Kristen Johnston, veteran news anchor Laurie Dhue and John Shinholser, President of McShin Foundaiton/NCADD-Richmond. NCADD President/CEO, Robert J. Lindsey, was moderator.
